

Joey B Banks

Drum Set, Drum Corp Snare, Percussion

Joey B. Banks is a performer, music producer, educator and 2010 Grammy nominated artist. He is a teacher of the "Joey B." drum method. He is a graduate of the Musicians Institute of Technology in Hollywood California and is a Madison Scout Drum and Bugle Corps Alumnus (1975-1986).

Joey B. has performed and recorded drums with more than 100 artists locally, regionally, and nationally for over 25 years and has played on over 50 albums over the last two decades. Some notable artists Joey B. has performed with include:

- Clyde Stubblefield (James Brown)
- Luther Allison
- Koko Taylor
- Cynthia Robinson (Sly and the Family Stone)
- Skyler Jett (2005 Grammy winner)
- The Four Tops
- Barrellhouse Chuck
- Billy Flynn
- Wayne Baker Brooks
- Tom Holland
- John Primer
- Linsey Alexander
- Pistol Pete
- The Spinners
- Roscoe Mitchell (avante garde and free jazz saxophonist)

Joey B. sometimes subs in for the "original funky drummer", Clyde Stubblefield at Funky Monday's and regularly sits in with the Clyde Stubblefield show. He also performs every Tuesday at the Frequency, one of Madison Wisconsin's hottest music venues, where his band Weapons of Mass Defunktion hosts the TUESDAY NIGHT JUNK PARTY, which showcases local, regional, national, and international jazz, funk, and hip hop groups.

These days you can see Joey B. performing with the Black N Blues All Stars, Madison Blues All Stars, Honor Among Thieves, Jim Schwall Band, Weapons of Mass DeFUNKTION, Horn House, Steely Dane, the Hanah Jon Taylor Artet and the Black Star Drum Line. He also produces music for individual artists, groups and various media outlets through his music production company JBENT PRODUCTIONS.

Joey B. teaches music programs for the Boys and Girls club and is the founder and drum instructor for the highly regarded "D.R.U.M. Program" and the performance group the "BLACK STAR DRUM LINE", which consists of young children 9-14 years old that are members of the Boys and Girls Club of Madison. He is highly experienced in performing and teaching virtually any style of music for students of all ages and abilities.

Hope to see you at a Joey B. performance in 2011.

Support your local music!!!!

<http://www.facebook.com/joeybbanks>

<http://www.myspace.com/joeybbanks>

<http://www.reverbnation.com/joeybbanks>